Brothers and Sisters, AsSalaamu alaikum waRahmatuLaahi waBarakatuh.

The Hajj season and Eid ul Adha are just a couple weeks away. One of the most important rituals that Muslims can observe this holiday season is offering the sacrifice of a sheep, goat, or cow as an Udhiyah / Qurbani.

Congratulations on the arrival of the first 10 days of Thul-hijjah starting Wed 22nd Of July. With the arrival of these blessed days comes Tahleel, Tahmeed, Takbeer, Hajj season, Fsting Yaoum Arafah, Eid ul Adha and the ritual of Udhiyah(Qurbani) which is an act of worship that commemorates the absolute obedience to Allaah that was demonstrated by Prophet Ibraheem and his son Ishmaeil (Salla Allaah aleyehema wasalam). The Prophet Mohammad (Salla Allaahu aleyhi waSallam) stayed 10 years in Madinah and performed sacrifice at Eed. The sacrifice of a sheep or a goat, or a cow or a third of a cow as an Udhiyah (Qurbani) start after Salat-ul-Eed on Friday 31st July till sunset of Monday 3rd of August.

Sacrifice is considered to be a highly recommended act of the Sunnah by all major schools of thought, and even an obligation by the Hanafi School.
